

Cal-SEARCH Preceptor/Mentor Library

The Cal-SEARCH Preceptor/Mentor Library is a virtual repository of learning opportunities. It has sections for Cal-SEARCH preceptors and mentors. The Library includes "papers," links to other web sites, and other documents.

Resources for Cal-SEARCH Preceptors

National Health Service Corps Educational Program For Clinical and Community Issues in Primary Care: A Precepting Guide
Developed by Janina Levy, M.P.H., Medial Education Consultant and the American Medical Student Association for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Public Health Service, Health Resources and Services Administration, National Health Service Corps. This guide includes how to plan the experience, teaching styles and methods, and discipline specific information.
http://www.amsa.org/AMSA/Libraries/Committee_Docs/precept.sflb.ashx

University of California Irvine

Resident Teaching Skills Website: A collection of learning opportunities for not only residents as teachers, but all preceptors. The site includes the "Clinical Teaching Perception Inventory" that helps preceptors learn about their clinical teaching skills. There are two videos that offer examples of teaching. Links to other UCI resources and beyond are in place and located on the tool bar.
<http://www.residentteachers.com/index.html>

Tennessee Primary Care Association

An audio visual (power point) presentation called "Preceptor Tools" reviews preceptor roles in 20 minutes. Includes tips on time management, teaching best practices, and how to provide constructive criticism.
Preceptor Tools® (to enter this site press control + click)

West Virginia AHEC

This site has multiple links. It summarizes the Institute of Medicine Report, "Quality Through Collaboration: The Future of Rural Health Care" and its five core competencies for health professionals. Also includes a section on service learning for students and preceptors, along with sample projects by students. www.wvrhepahec.org and <http://www.wvrhepahec.org/competencies.asp> and <http://www.wvrhepahec.org/ServiceLearning/index.asp>

University of North Carolina

Expert Preceptor Interactive Curriculum or EPIC: this site has ten learning modules that are well organized and up-to-date for preceptors. Registration is required, but there is no cost. <http://www.med.unc.edu/epic/>

American College of Physicians

A brief two page article, "How to Make Teaching in the Office More Time Efficient." <http://www.acponline.org/journals/news/jul-aug03/teaching.htm>.

American Academy of Family Physicians

Provides information on the following topic: "Want to be a successful preceptor? Get Organized!" <http://www.weleadinlearning.org/jrapr03.htm>.

Stanford

This brief article by Stanford's LeBaron and Schillinger advocates inclusion of the patients in the presentations by learners to preceptors. <http://www.stfm.org/Fullpdf/feb00/obt.pdf>

Sacred Heart Center for Medical Education and Research

Includes an inventory of topics such as the section "Physician Faculty Development Materials." <http://www.peacehealth.org/oregon/CMedEd/FacultyDevel.htm>

Edinboro University

A two page website that reviews the "one minute preceptor skills" identified by UCSF's David Irby and illustrates a preceptor using them with a nurse practitioner student. <http://www.sru.edu/Pages/6388.asp>

Resources for Cal-SEARCH Mentors

Governor's Mentoring Partnership

Created by the Office of the Governor's Mentoring Partnership, this "Mentor Guidelines and Code of Conduct" document covers mentor basics as well as how to measure success.

http://www.mentoring.ca.gov/pdf/code_of_conduct.pdf

University of California, Davis "Mentoring Guidelines"

These guidelines focus on faculty mentoring graduate students and covers topics such as how to guide students through degree requirements, thesis or dissertation research, and professional development.

http://www-eve.ucdavis.edu/eve/pbg/Program_Mentoring_Guideline.html

University of California, San Diego

UC San Diego's Health Professions Mentor Program provides "Guidelines for a Successful Mentorship" that focuses on responsibilities of the mentee and the mentor.

http://aep.ucsd.edu/hmp3/HPMP_guidelines.pdf

Contra Costa Health Pathways e-Mentor Program

The "E-Mentoring Training Module" was created by Kevin Lemieux, California State University, Sacramento—Human Resources Intern for the Contra Costa Health Pathways e-Mentor Program.

<http://cceconptnr.org/e-Mentoring/e-Mentoring%20Training%20Module2010.pdf>

"E-Mentoring Guidelines" for both Mentors and Students are also available:

<http://cceconptnr.org/e-Mentoring/Business%20Guide.pdf> for Mentors

<http://cceconptnr.org/e-Mentoring/Student%20Guide.pdf> for Students

University of California, San Francisco

This site contains a variety of resources including a "UCSF Faculty Mentoring Program Toolkit," tips for enhancing the mentoring relationship, sample Mentor's meeting journal, etc.

http://acpers.ucsf.edu/mentoring/mentoring_program_resour.php

Mentoring in Medical Contexts

This paper, given at the British Educational Research Association Annual Conference in 2003, covers topics such as informal and formal mentoring, issues raised during mentoring sessions, outcomes from mentoring, etc.

http://eprints.qut.edu.au/2894/1/Medical_Contexts_and_Mentoring_4.pdf

This program is funded by the U.S Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration.