

Attachment 'A'

Scripps is pursuing, through available means, additional assessments of this and other buildings currently classified as SPC-1. Reconsideration for classification as SPC-2 is based on recent favorable information, such as the results from the material testing and assessment of incidental modifications. Scripps' goal is to meet the stipulated SB 1953 / SB 1661 deadlines to the extent that current and future economic conditions allow access to needed capital.