October 18, 2012

9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

A public meeting will be held to discuss any potential changes and updates to the Medical Service Study Areas (MSSA) Reconfiguration Process 2010 for Monterey County. Input from the public and stakeholders in Monterey County are welcomed and encouraged. The public meeting will give stakeholders an opportunity to participate in the MSSA Reconfiguration Process and provide suggestions and feedback for any proposed changes. The agenda will provide an opportunity for the public to present recommendations based on the MSSA guidelines. For information on the MSSA Reconfiguration Process 2010, the MSSA guidelines, 2010 census data, MSSA maps, and any proposed changes to MSSAs are available by county on the reconfiguration website, <http://oshpd.ca.gov/HWDD/MSSA/index.html>.

A copy of the agenda for the public meeting will be posted on the Stakeholder Meeting Notices link of the reconfiguration website. All items on the agenda are under consideration for discussion and/or action.

In order to finalize the agenda for the meeting, RVSPs are requested by Monday October 15, 2012. All RSVPs and questions can be addressed to:
